

Case Western Reserve University
United Against Inequities in Disease presents...

Health Literacy Workshop

w/ guest lecturer Dr. Stephanie Larson

Join CWRU UAID on our very first Health Literacy Workshop. This workshop will be focusing on children's health, medical misinformation, and there will be an interactive activity at the end!

Dr. Stephanie Larson is a researcher, educator, and bioethicist working across disciplines in the health humanities. Dr. Larson participated in over 450 clinical ethics consultations and gained specialization in genetic ethics and clinic disability bioethics.

When: Friday, April 5th @ 6-7:30 pm

Where: Tinkham Veale University Center Senior Classroom

Parking: Lot 29 (There will be signs directing from lot to the event)

