Embracing Neurodiversity in Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities: An Intersectional Approach to Reclaiming Our Narratives

◆ Let's talk about the stories we don't always tell.

In many AAPI communities, conversations around autism, neurodiversity, and mental health are shaped by stigma and silence. Join Dennis Tran for an interactive, story-driven session on reclaiming these narratives and building pathways to empowerment, visibility, and belonging.

Tuesday, March 31st
7-8pm on zoom!
