Promises and Pitfalls of Integrating Biological Data into Social Science Studies

3:00 – 4:30PM
Question & Answer | Reception to follow
Refreshments will be provided

Tinkham Veale Center | Senior Classroom
11038 Bellflower Road, Cleveland, OH 44106

Pamela Herd is Professor of Public Affairs and Sociology at the University of Wisconsin. Broadly, her work focuses on aging, policy, health, and inequality. One stream examines how social policies (i.e., Social Security) affect gender, race, and class inequalities. The second stream focuses on the relationship between social factors and health.

She is the Principal Investigator of the Wisconsin Longitudinal Study, a member of the Board of Overseers of the General Social Survey, a member of the Board of Overseers of the Panel Study of Income Dynamics, and a member of the National Academy of Social Insurance.

Event sponsored by the Department of Sociology & ACES + program