

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS for 2017-18 Fellowship:

The College of Arts and Sciences at Case Western Reserve University is offering a postdoctoral fellowship for historical research in African American Studies. The fellowship is open to scholars committed to university-level research and teaching. Fellows must have their Ph.D. at the time of appointment and not exceed the rank of assistant professor. The one-year appointment in the History Department begins August 1, 2017, carries a stipend of $55,000 plus medical benefits and up to $5,000 for relocation and research-related expenses. The Fellow is expected to teach one history course (to be cross-listed with Ethnic Studies) in the spring semester, give a public presentation, and submit a report to the director on the year's activities.

Completed applications must include a cover letter, CV, a sample of scholarly writing, and a project proposal (not to exceed five double-spaced pages) that outlines the applicant's scholarship and research agenda for the fellowship year. Send three confidential letters of recommendation, including preferably one from the dissertation advisor, c/o Katie Nabors, Postdoctoral Fellowship in African American Studies, Department of History, CWRU, 10900 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44106-7107. Electronic applications accepted at HistoryPostDoc@case.edu. Deadline for receipt of all materials is Friday, March 31, 2017. Notification anticipated by early to mid-May.

In employment, as in education, Case Western Reserve University is an equal opportunity employer committed to diverse faculty, staff, and student body. Women and underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply.
