

Case Western Reserve University
Baker-Nord Center for the Humanities
Application Cover Sheet

Graduate Research Grant

Eligibility: Funds are available to full-time Ph.D., second year M.A., and third year M.F.A. students in the arts and humanities within the College of Arts and Sciences, Case Western Reserve University.

Before applying, carefully read the application instructions and eligibility requirements.

NAME:

POSITION:

DEPARTMENT:

STUDENT ID NUMBER:

MAILING ADDRESS:

EMAIL:

PHONE NUMBER:

In addition to this cover sheet, complete applications must include:

1. Project narrative (maximum 3 pages, typed, double-spaced) that provides the following:
 - brief summary of the proposed dissertation research project;
 - current status of the project;
 - description of the proposed research/conference for which the research grant is sought, and brief description of proposed itinerary, dates and locations of travel.
2. Bibliography containing works of primary concern to the proposed topic. (one page)
3. Letter of recommendation from the applicant's dissertation advisor or research director. In addition to commenting on the merits of the project, this letter should specify the applicant's current status in the respective graduate program in terms of completion of requirements and submission/approval of the dissertation prospectus. This letter should be emailed directly to bakernord@case.edu.
4. Estimated budget (one page)

Please note that funds are available as reimbursement only. Final reports (2 pages in length) are due before funds will be released.