THE KASSEN LECTURE FOR 2016

"Dangerous Care: Reproductive Violence, Fast and Slow"

By: Claire Wendland

Professor, Department of Anthropology, Obstetrics & Gynecology, and Medical History and Bioethics, University of Wisconsin-Madison

October 13, 2016

4:15 – 5:30 PM

Mather Memorial 201

Reception to follow

Each year the Department of Anthropology presents the Kassen Lecture. Generously supported by an annuity from the late Drs. Aileen and Julian Kassen, the lectureship invites a top female scholar in the social sciences to the department to present a lecture to the Department and to the campus community.
