CWRU Humanities Programs

Majors
American Studies • Art History • Asian Studies • Classics • English • French • French and Francophone Studies • German • German Studies • History • History and Philosophy of Science • Japanese Studies • Music • Philosophy • Religious Studies • Spanish • Teacher Licensure* • Women’s and Gender Studies • World Literature

*Available as a second major only

Minors
American Studies • Art History • Asian Studies • Chinese • Classics • Creative Writing • English • Ethics • Ethnic Studies • Film Studies • French • French and Francophone Studies • German • German Studies • History • History and Philosophy of Science • Italian • Japanese Studies • Judaic Studies • Music • Philosophy • Religious Studies • Russian • Social Justice • Spanish • Women’s and Gender Studies • World Literature

Case Western Reserve University is a nationally-ranked research university located in the heart of University Circle. The College of Arts and Sciences, Baker-Nord Center for the Humanities, Social Justice Institute, and partner institutions such as the Cleveland Museum of Art, Western Reserve Historical Society, and Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum provide a unique and enriching environment for students to pursue individual interests in the humanities.

Many CWRU humanities students obtain internships at local institutions, engage in research at museums and libraries at home and abroad, present at academic conferences, and participate in community-based classes and experiences.

A humanities education from CWRU will inspire you and give you the foundation you need to succeed in any field you choose.

Cleveland Humanities Collaborative

Earn an Associate of Arts degree at Cuyahoga Community College and transfer to Case Western Reserve University to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in a humanities field. Prepare for a career you love.

Email: CHC@tri-c.edu
Visit: chc.case.edu
Tri-C Transfer Center: 216.987.3841

Think Big! Think the Cleveland Humanities Collaborative. Learn what you love!

chc.case.edu
Cleveland Humanities Collaborative

The humanities connect us to others, past and present, and inspire our passion for knowledge. The Cleveland Humanities Collaborative (CHC) provides a pathway for Tri-C students to complete their Associate of Arts degree and transfer to CWRU to pursue a Bachelor of Arts degree in one or more of CWRU’s humanities programs.

A + B = C

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS + BACHELOR OF ARTS = CAREER

You’re working on your Associate of Arts degree. You love the humanities. You have an excellent academic record. CWRU wants you!

As a CHC student at Tri-C, you will have:
- a CHC mentor on each campus to help you explore your interests in the humanities
- dedicated CHC counselors to keep you on track
- the opportunity to take classes at CWRU while paying Tri-C tuition
- special access to renowned humanities speakers and scholars
- scholarship opportunities to complete your associate’s degree
- personalized transfer guidance
- comprehensive financial aid advising

You’ve completed your Associate of Arts degree. You’ve applied and been accepted to CWRU. The CHC welcomes you to campus!

As a CHC Scholar at CWRU, you will have:
- a financial aid package that makes a CWRU education possible
- a summer academic program to bridge your transition to CWRU that includes a $3000 stipend
- a cohort of like-minded students
- CHC academic mentoring and advising
- special access to campus programs and University Circle institutions
- up to $5000 in funding for a local or international research project
- humanities-based work-study opportunities
- ongoing career counseling

You have your degree in a humanities discipline. Congratulations! You’re prepared to follow your dream.

As a CHC graduate from CWRU, you will have:
- strong analytical and communication skills that employers value
- a practiced ability to learn new things and integrate information
- a great foundation for graduate school
- the experience to be a passionate, empathetic leader
- the inspiration to build and strengthen your community
- a worldwide network of more than 110,000 CWRU alumni
- the vision to do what you love!

chc.case.edu