Case Western Reserve University
The Leonard and Joan Ronis Annual Memorial Recital Application

This form is to be completed by the student and turned in to the Music Office by the Friday afternoon after spring break.

Guidelines

1. All CWRU undergraduate music students are eligible to audition for the Leonard and Joan Ronis Annual Memorial Recital Application Prize.
 2. The audition will consist of standard solo repertoire chosen by the student in consultation with the applied music instructor.
 3. The competition will take place during spring juries (sign up for Ronis Jury after turning in this form).
 4. Up to two winners will be selected and each will receive a cash award and will perform at a public recital during the following fall semester. If one winner is chosen he/she will perform a full length recital (approximately 50 minutes of music), if two winners are chosen a half recital (approximately 25 minutes of music) will be expected of each winner.
