Dear Prof. Dayton Miller,

In reply to your letter of January 19th, apart from the reference you quote, I am sorry that we are unable to trace any particulars of Flamsteed's and Halley's observations of the velocity of sound, neither in our records nor in the published lives of the two astronomers.

A letter from the Assistant Secretary of the Royal Society on the subject is enclosed for your information.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

J. W. Dyson
