

HAND GRANTS

OVERVIEW

The Baker-Nord Center for the Humanities is excited to announce funding to support undergraduate engagement with the Judy's Hand Pavilion, installed in Case Western Reserve University's Toby's Plaza. The installation, by celebrated artist Tony Tasset, is one of seven city-wide projects commissioned by CWRU's Putnam Collection and FRONT International's multi-site exhibit "An American City."

TO APPLY

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis during the 2018-2019 school year.

A complete application must include all of the following components:

- (1) This cover sheet.
- (2) A succinct proposal describing the event you would like to host at Judy's Hand Pavilion. (200 – 500 words)
- (3) A detailed budget that demonstrates exactly what the funding will be used for.

Once you have completed your application, submit all three of these components in a single email to bakernord@case.edu.
