EMIGRACIÓN Y ALFABETIZACIÓN: FUENTES ESCRITAS Y GRÁFICAS

A talk by Ángel Mato Díaz

Date: 03/31/2021
Time: 3:20pm EST

Dr. Ángel Mato Díaz received his Ph.D. in History from the University of Oviedo. He has served as a Professor of Geography and History at different academic institutions in Asturias. His research is related to the world of literacy processes, formal and non-formal education, popular culture, and reading—especially in Ateneos, cultural societies, and popular libraries. His publications on the topic include Popular Reading in Asturias (1869-1936) (1991), and The Primary School in Asturias (1923–1937): Literacy and Schooling Processes (1992). Recently, Mato Díaz published Puro Gijón (2019) and Puro Asturias (2020), both related to historical photography and its usefulness in the dissemination of the past.
