The DELE Spanish diplomas (Diplomas de español como lengua extranjera) are official titles certifying a degree of proficiency in the Spanish language, granted by Spain's Institute Cervantes of Madrid, Spain.

Each exam consists of four printed tests and could be taken in DELE Examination Centers during annually scheduled calls published by Instituto Cervantes.

The results are published within approximately three months and candidates can access them through the DELE Diplomas of Spanish website and print the official grade certification from their restricted access.

The DELEs have indefinite validity and international recognition. The internationally recognized DELE diplomas certify the level of proficiency achieved by a candidate regardless of where and when they studied Spanish.
