

Welter-Muzic Undergraduate Research Fellowship in Child Studies Application

Submit to: Schubert Center for Child Studies, 615 Crawford Hall, LC 7179, E-mail: schubertcenter@case.edu • Phone (216)368-0540

Deadline for Application: November 1 (for spring fellowships) and March 1 (for summer and fall fellowships)

The Schubert Center for Child Studies is now accepting applications for the Welter-Muzic Undergraduate Research Fellowship in Child Studies program. This program supports undergraduate student research in the areas of childhood and adolescence.

Undergraduate students may apply for between $200 and $1000 to cover the costs associated with their research. Costs can include research-related travel, conference attendance, and research-related supplies. The research can be for a capstone, poster presentation, or other CWRU related projects. All majors and minors may apply, but preference will be given to Childhood Studies minors

Projects must have a focus on child well-being and include implications for child-related policy. At the conclusion of their project, students awarded the Welter-Muzic Undergraduate Research Fellowship in Child Studies will be required to provide a 1-2 page summary of their research and experience which may be used in full or in part by the Schubert Center in publications such as our website and annual report. All projects must be completed and all funds spent prior to graduation.
