Department of Music
College of Arts and Sciences
Case Western Reserve University

Job Areas: Music Education (Instrumental), Tenure-track
Job Title: Assistant Professor of Music Education
Start Date: 2018-19 Academic Year

Responsibilities: Duties will include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in music education and directing the CWRU Spartan Marching Band. Other duties, dependent on qualifications, may include supervision of undergraduate and graduate student teaching candidates and other teaching responsibilities as assigned. Teaching load is 2 courses per semester.

Requirements: Applicants must have at minimum A.B.D. status in a doctoral program in Music Education, as well as a minimum of three years documented successful public school teaching experience, an active research agenda, and a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching. Receipt of doctorate by date of appointment is required. Preferred qualifications include a background in instrumental (woodwind) music education, documented college teaching experience, and a demonstrated interest in popular/vernacular music or social justice.

About the Music Department at CWRU: The successful candidate for this position will add to a vibrant team of music scholars, artists, and educators. CWRU and The Cleveland Institute of Music cooperate in a Joint Music Program, providing students with the advantages of both a conservatory and a major research university. The two institutions share a campus setting in University Circle, together with the Cleveland Orchestra, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Music Settlement, and over twenty other cultural organizations.
