Ford Foundation Diversity Dissertation Fellowships

Deadline	11/14/2014
Description	The Ford Foundation awards 30 one-year dissertation fellowships for diverse PhD and ScD students who hope to teach and research at a university level. Through its program of Fellowships, the Ford Foundation seeks to increase the number of underrepresented groups of the nation's college and university faculties. Applicants should expect to complete the dissertation during the following academic year.
Award Amount	Stipends of $21,000 and expenses paid to attend one Conference of Ford Fellows
Disciplines	Humanities. Life Sciences. Physical Sciences. Social Sciences. School of Arts and Architecture. School of Engineering. School of Public Affairs. Research-based fields of education are eligible if the major field of study is listed among the eligible programs and is used to describe the PhD or ScD program of the applicant (e.g., sociology of education, anthropology and education).
Academic Level	Working on Doctoral Dissertation.
Citizenship	Open only to U.S. citizens or permanent residents. U.S. Nationals are also eligible as are individuals granted deferred action status under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Program.
