American-Scandinavian Foundation Awards for Study In Scandinavia

Deadline	11/1/2014
Description	The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) awards fellowships and grants to up to 62 individuals to pursue research in a Scandinavian country for up to 1 year. These fellowships and grants also fund study or creative arts projects in one or more in one or more countries in Scandinavia. Recipients will work on a well-defined, full-time project of their choosing.
Award Amount	Grants of $5,000 or fellowships of up to $23,000 for up to one year. Varies each year. The awards support project-related costs, including maintenance, trans-Atlantic round-trip travel, in-country travel, tuition and fees and materials.
Disciplines	Open to all fields.
Academic Level	Prospective/Current Graduate Student. Working on Doctoral Dissertation. Postdoctoral Scholar.
Citizenship	Open only to U.S. citizens or permanent residents.
Requirements	Applicants must have completed their undergraduate education by the start of their project in Scandinavia. Grants are considered especially suitable for post-graduate scholars, professionals, and candidates in the arts. Applicants must secure these academic or professional placements or affiliations on their own. Team projects are eligible, but each member must apply as an individual, submitting a separate, fully-documented application. It is desirable that all candidates have at least some ability in the language of the host country. Priority for fellowships is given to candidates at the graduate level for dissertation-related study or research.
Award Type	Fellowship/Grant
